Child abuse is as old as the history of mankind. It has many ugly forms and is a problem of severe magnitude and shocking implications. The spiritual atmosphere which Camp Joy attempts to provide may be one of the best deterrents possible. When, however, an instance of child abuse is suspected or reported, our leadership will do everything it can to help those in need as quickly as possible along the best spiritual and professional guidelines. If there is any suspicion of child abuse in any form, it must be reported to the director. I acknowledge my responsibility to be careful and conscientious in reporting any suspicions to the director.

I have read and fully understand all questions requested in this application. I certify that all answers given by me are true, accurate and complete. I understand that the completion and/or execution of this application does not insure me a position, nor does it obligate me or Camp Joy in any way. I fully understand that the omission and/or misrepresentation of facts requested may be cause for immediate dismissal without prior notice. I authorize Camp Joy to request and obtain information concerning my employment, and contact the personal references listed herein. When pertinent questions arise and it is deemed necessary, I further authorize any law enforcement agency of this state to conduct a criminal history check by name and identifiers to determine the existence of any arrest resulting in conviction and furnish a response to the director. If accepted for service, I agree to abide by all the rules and regulations of Camp Joy and of InFaith. I have read, understand, and agree to the above.

Camp Joy Statement of Faith

We stand for and emphasize the foundational truths of the historic Christian faith held in common by like-minded evangelical Christians. Our beliefs are stated as follows:

1. We believe that there is one God, creator and sustainer of the universe, existing in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
2. We believe that the Bible is the Word of God, verbally inspired by the Holy Spirit, is inerrant in the original manuscripts and infallible, our only authority for faith and practice.
3. We believe in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His substitutionary death upon the cross, in His bodily resurrection, in His victory over sin and His enemy Satan, In His present exaltation at the Father's right hand, and in His personal imminent return, at any time, in power and great glory.
4. We believe in the fall and lost estate of all people, whose total depravity necessitates regeneration by the Holy Spirit for salvation.
5. We believe that salvation consists of the forgiveness of sins, the atonement by the substitutionary death and shed blood of Jesus Christ our Savior, the imputation of Christ's righteousness, and the gift of eternal life, received by grace through faith alone, entirely apart from works.
6. We believe in the ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life, and by whom the Church, the Body of Christ, is gifted and equipped to serve and glorify God.
7. We believe the Church, or Body or Bride of Christ consists only of those who are born again through faith in Jesus Christ, for whom He now makes intercession in Heaven and for whom He shall come again.
8. We believe in the bodily resurrection of all people: those who have trusted in Jesus Christ, the ultimate Judge, will receive everlasting life and blessedness in Heaven, those who have not will be separated from God forever and will receive everlasting punishment in hell.
9. We believe in the personality of Satan, called the Devil, that he presently exercises great influence over unsaved people, and that he actively fights against God's program on earth.
10. We believe that Jesus Christ has commanded His Church to go into all the world and preach the gospel to all people, and that this mandate should be a primary concern of all Christians.

I have read and fully understand the statement of faith above. I agree with it completely and will conform all of my teaching with it.
